Agency Summary

Founded in 2002, CASA for Children of DC is a 501(c)3 organization whose mission is to advocate for abused and neglected youth in the DC child welfare system. Volunteer advocates meet several times a month with their assigned youth. They establish a rapport that helps them voice the wishes of the child in court. This is done in-person at court hearings and through written reports submitted in advance.

Some agency highlights for 2015:

- Served 242 children
- Recruited, screened and trained 113 new adult volunteers
- 45% of our youth worked with their CASA on outcomes to help them secure a permanent home
- 29% of our volunteers worked with their assigned young person to help them develop life skills
- Developed a comprehensive teen pregnancy prevention program
- Created 2 new initiatives to assist Unaccompanied Refugee Minors and Persons in Need of Supervision (youth with minor juvenile status offenses)

With your help, we can grow to meet the needs of even more children!
